

No. 62.

I AM A FAITHFUL CATHOLIC.

(Page 292.)

Cheerfully.

MOZART.

1. I am a faith-ful Ca - tho - lic, I love my ho - ly Faith, I will be true to
 3. If base it is to yield be - fore The Per - se - cu - tor's Rod; Then bas - er far to

5. I love His Altar, where I kneel My Je - sus to a - dore; I love my Mother,
 7. I love my Cross, I love my Beads— Each Em - blem of my Faith; Let foolish men rail

Ho - ly Church, And steadfast un - til death. 2. I shun the haunts of those who seek To en - side with those, Who insult the Church of God. 4. Oh! far from me such wick - ed - ness! One Ma - ry dear, Oh! may I love them more! 6. I love the Saints of old - en time, The as they will, I'll love them un - til death. I love my Cross, I love my Beads— Each snare poor Catholic youth; No Church I own, no Schools I know but those that teach the Truth trea - sure I hold dear, MY HO - LY FAITH. I fear not men, 'Tis God a - lone I fear.

pla - ces where they dwelt; I love to pray where Saints have pray'd, And kneel where they have knelt.
Em - blem of my Faith; Let fool - ish men rail as they will, I'll love them un - til death.

Amen.